Scholastic Set New High Record Here

Increase of 133 Over Last Year: Decline For Past Years Is Recovered

Canyon has set a new high record in the number of scholastics enrolled. The total number of children of scholastic age in the district is 785 as compared with 652 last year. The increase for the year is 133.

S. B. Orton states that there has been a steady decline in the number of scholastics since 1936. The enumeration in 1936 totaled 730. The decline was steady until the bottom was reached last year.

The coming of new families to Canyon during the past year was responsible for the increase in the number of scholastics. There are no vacant houses in Canyon, and few apartments are available.

Real estate men report that there has not been such an active market in houses in Canyon for years as during the past few months.

Lt. O. E. Hinkle Called To Army

LIEUT. OLIN E. HINKLE

Olin E. Hinkle, professor of Journalism in West Texas State, received a call from the army Tuesday to report for active service as photographic officer. He will receive the commission of 1st Lieutenant.

Lieut. Hinkle will leave on April 26 to report to Miami Beach, Florida, for six weeks training. He will then go to Randolph Field.

Lieut. Hinkle is the 18th member of the faculty who is in service. All of these men have been granted a leave of absence for the duration. He is one of the best known newspaper men in the Panhandle, and a photographer of recognized ability.

District Court To Hold Spring Term April 26

The spring term of district court will meet April 26. The term will continue for two weeks.

The grand jury will be convened on Monday, and a petit jury has been summoned for Tuesday. It is unlikely that a petit jury will be necessary for the second week, but one has been drawn in case the jurors are needed.

The following have been summoned to serve on the grand jury: J. J. Wright, John Bedenk, Cecil Bible, Walter Graham, Morris Abbott, Henry F. Miller, S. W. Cain, O. E. Austin, Chester Albritton, A. M. Olson, Joe Baber, J. W. Byrd, O. A. Blankenship, C. S. Davenport, John Brandt, Fred Bauer.

The following have been summoned for the petit jury:: Wilford Taylor, Jr., B. E. McCormick, H. W. Snodgrass, Raymond Tucek, J. P. Upchurch, L. E. Thomas, Andy Walsh, M. W. Dooley, J. F. SoRelle, A. L. Tarlton, Earl Burtz, C. H. Thurman, Sid Carter, Edgar Williams, E. W. Woods, A. H. Simon, Fred M. Standley, Clarence Stallings, John Jennings, Carl Hartman, Fred Coburn, Herman Vaughn, R. J. Wall, Otto Skarke, Hosea Foster, Ray N. Nagle, J. A. Strain, Clarence Adcock, O. A. Smith, Morris Small, W. L. Avent, Jr., Jack Smith, P. L. Walters, E. G. Snodgrass, James Cole, Owen Williams, Flynn Winters, J. T. Sykes, E. C. Weeks, Fred Soll.

Capt. R. A. Neblett Is Transferred

Capt. R. A. Neblett has been transferred from Camp Hood to Camp Barkley at Abilene. He is in the medical corps and volunteered for service overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Burrow were on a visit to Belton with the Neblett family when the orders of transfer were received Thursday. Capt. Neblett was given sufficient time to accompany his family to Canyon, and reported to Camp Barkley Tuesday morning. Mrs. Neblett and their children will remain in Canyon for the present.

Lt. Reeves Donnell Wins With ROTC

This is the third consecutive year that Lieut. Reeves Donnell has made record of "excellent" with his ROTC unit of the Amarillo high school. Lieut. Donnell has been in charge of this unit for several years, and his record is outstanding.

During the past year he has devoted considerable time to drilling West Texas State men in military tactics in order to prepare them for induction in the army.

MRS. LOCKHART HERE

Mrs. Vincent Lockhart has arrived from Camp Edwards, Mass., where she has been with her husband, Capt. Vincent Lockhart.

Capt. Lockhart is with the 36th Division, and many of these troops have gone overseas.

Mrs. E. H. Albers Died Suddenly Last Saturday

Mrs. Emma Marie Albers, 53, died Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the family home east of Canyon. She had been sick only a few days, and her death came as a great shock to the family and neighbors.

The family has lived in Randall county for 27 years, and are among the prominent farmers of the county.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Amarillo. Rev. Martin J. Hartenberger, the pastor, will officiate.

Interment will follow in the Lutheran Cemetery east of Canyon in charge of the Griggs-Thompson Funeral Home. Pall bearers are: Herman Kuhlman, Paul Fluegel, Fred Gerdsen, Gus Leseberg, Cas Jennings, Jeff Wallace.

Surviving are: the husband, Emil H. Albers; five sons, Vance Albers, with the U. S. forces in Alaska, John Albers of Sheppard Field, Alan Albers of Winfield, Kans., Marvin and Bruce Albers of Canyon; one daughter, Miss Phyllis Albers of Omaha, Nebraska.

Lieut. Robt. Bright Named Instructor

Lieut. Robt. H. Bright has been named instructor in field artillery at Fort Davis, N. C. He received his commission there two months ago and was assigned to the staff.

Mrs. Bright will join her husband there at the close of this session of W. T.

Big Deposits in Local Bank

More Money on Deposit Than At Any Time in the History of Canyon

The First National Bank had deposits amounting to $1,518,381.28 at the close of business Monday.

This is the largest amount of money that has ever been on deposit in Canyon.

Several years ago there were three banks in Canyon, and later the number was reduced to two. But the total deposits of these institutions never totaled a million dollars.

Even with the heavy income taxes which are paid by the citizens of Randall county, and the increasing number of War Bonds which are bought by the citizens, the bank deposits keep on growing.

More Irrigation Is Provided in Dreamland Cem.

Commissioner G. B. Heath was authorized Monday by the Commissioners Court to put down irrigation lines in the new part of Dreamland Cemetery.

Practically all of the lots have been sold in the east section of the cemetery. When the new section was opened, there were no irrigation facilities, and this section has not been attractive to those needing lots.

Irrigation lines will be put in by Mr. Heath through the central part of the new section, which will make possible irrigation of about half of the new addition. This will probably serve for several years, when other lines will be needed to cover the entire new addition.

M. S. Bishir Has Been Discharged

Marion S. Bishir has been discharged from the army. He has been located at Del Rio for the past two months as aviation mechanic.

Mr. Bishir will not open his automobile shop for the duration, but expects to report to the West Coast within a month for work in a shipyard.

ERNEST SYKES PROMOTED

Ernest T. Sykes, of Sioux Field, South Dakota, has recently been promoted to Corporal. Corporal Sykes graduated from Mechanics School there on March 29. He has been transferred to Larado, where he is studying in Gunnery School for his pre-flight training.

A. D. (Beans) Parker has recently been transferred to Camp Murphy, Florida, and has been promoted to Technical Corporal. Corporal Parker is in the radio school there.

Legion Hall Open for Service Men

All Men In Uniform Are Welcome, and Plans Made For Regular Entertainment

The American Legion Hall will be opened to men in uniform Saturday afternoons, nights and on Sundays. This announcement was made Tuesday by Post Commander T. A. Black.

Magazines, games and tables, and other equipment are being requested of the citizens of Canyon.

The Legion Hall is located near to the business section and will be very convenient for men in service who wish to have a place to go during their off periods.

It is planned to have dances on Saturday nights after the club room gets started. Women of the Auxiliary will sponsor the dances.

Veterans of World War I are very anxious to render all of the service possible to men who are in training at West Texas State, states Commander Black. Men from other training centers will be welcomed at any time.

WT High School Will Give Play Tomorrow Night

The West Texas State High School is presenting its senior play Friday night, April 16 in the Education auditorium at 8:30 p. m. The play selected for this year's production is "June Mad" a comedy in three acts. "June Mad" is the second project from a group of three that are being produced by the Speech 412 Play Directing class. It is under general direction of Dr. Seth A. Fessenden. Miss Helen White Moore, sponsor of the senior class, is sponsoring the play.

You will enjoy the romantic comedy of a teen-age girl who changes her whole attitude toward life when she meets a young college man. You will be thrilled to see just how Effie manages to prepare the meals because she never knows just "how many are going to be present. Milly Lou is the little girl that always has an answer, and Julia a beautiful young girl that not only knows the answers but has a lovely line. It is one of the best plays that has ever been produced by W. T. High so don't miss it.

The cast includes: Penny Wood, played by Mary Hodges, Chuck Harris, Tom Knighton; Mrs. Wood, Waldene Dorris; Elmer Tuttle, Ross Gidden; Dr. Wood, James White; Effie, Dorothy Kephart; Milly Lou, Beatrice Clark; G. Mervyn Roberts, C. M. Campbell; Roger Van Vleck, Jed Miller; Mr. Harris, Garland Burgess; Shirley Wentworth, Norma Davis; Ralph Wentworth, Marvin May; Julie Harris, Shirley Byars.

Four Teams to Seek Bond Sales

Quota of $93,000 During Second War Bond Drive Is Needed in Randall County

The campaign to sell $93,000 in War bonds started in Randall county Monday.

Sales were brisk Monday, but were four times as large Tuesday. There was considerable activity yesterday at the bank and postoffice.

Four sales committees are working on the sales in Randall county headed by the following: T. A. Black, C. R. Burrow, C. H. Jarrett and G. G. Foster. Every citizen of Randall county will be urged to buy extra bonds this month in order to put over the 13 billion War Loan which Uncle Sam needs to finance the war.

R. H. Wright and W. C. Black are co-chairmen of this special drive. Literature explaining the seven different types of bonds are in the hands of the various war workers who are determined to meet the county's quota before the close of the month.

Auto Plates Are Under Total Sale For Past Year

A total of 2,723 1943 plates were issued to automobile and truck owners of Randall county before the closing time for plate payments. The total amount of money collected is $3,000 less than collected last year.

There was a total of 3,925 plates issued last year. While many more plates will be issued before the end of the year, it is expected that the sale of plates for 1943 will be considerable under that of 1942.

P. T.-A. Meeting Will Be Held Monday

The Parent Teachers Association will meet April 19, at 3 p. m. in the music room of the grade school building.

The following program will be given: Conservation on the Home Front, Miss Frances Wilroy; a play by the third grade, under the direction of Miss Sarah Thompson.

A social hour will follow.

Ph. Mate 2/C and Mrs. Bob Campbell of Corpus Christi, visited here Friday through Monday with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Campbell. Mr. Campbell is on a 15-day furlough. He and Mrs. Campbell left Tuesday to go to Houston for a visit.

Single Men Will Be Wiped Out In Call Made Locally Next Month

Local Board Will Be Forced to Call Married Men Starting in June

Three men left this morning for Lubbock to take their physical examinations in the army. These men were accepted as volunteers for construction work.

George Henry Vineyard, Robert Alfred Bellah and Lyman Easton Thomas, Jr., were the three volunteers.

These men count on the county's quota for the month. The balance of men on the monthly call will go to Lubbock on the afternoon of April 26.

One negro has been called for May 3 and will report for physical examination.

Confronted with a call on May 25 for 32 men, the local Selective Board will canvass the manpower situation Friday afternoon. It is indicated that the bottom of the barrel will be scraped by this call, and every available single man in the county must be called. It is unlikely that a sufficient number of single men will be found to meet this call, and for the first time of the war Randall county may be short of men on the May call unless married men are included in this call.

It is certain that when the June call is received married men must be taken from this county.

Demonstration For Making Slip Covers

A demonstration on making slip covers for chairs will be given Saturday afternoon, April 17, beginning at 2:30 o'clock by Miss Frances Wilroy, County Home Demonstration Agent.

The demonstration will be given in the Council Room at the court house.

All who are interested are invited to attend.

Farmers Have Sold 900 lb. Average Scrap Metal for Every Person

1,355 Tons of Scrap Metal Have Been Sold, and 270 Tons to Be Cleaned Up

Randall county farmers have marketed 1,355 tons of scrap metal since Pearl Harbor, according to an actual survey conducted in connection with the execution of farm plan sheets in March. About 270 tons more remain to be cleaned up according to estimates of the farmers themselves.

The 1,355 tons represents about 4,200 pounds per farm. This is not counting that sold by townspeople and others not listed as farm operators.

The farm population of Randall county is supposed to be about 3,000. If this be true then the amount of scrap metal sold is equal to about 900 pounds for every man, woman and child living on farms in Randall county.

Just how many guns, tanks or planes this amount of scrap metal would make is not clear but it is evidently a real contribution to the war need.

The farmers of Randall county have been performing a great patriotic service in every demand made upon them. Fully 98% of the farmers responded to the Red Cross drive, and a large portion are buying War Bonds regularly.

The farmers would like to see some of the scrap metal made into tractors, plows, windmills, barb wire and such other items of farm equipment as are needed to maintain food production.

The same 642 farms reporting the sale of 1,355 tons of scrap metal, also report the need of new machinery and equipment as follows: 62 tractors, 64 grain drills, 125 trucks and pickup trucks, 65 plows, 40 combines, 45 windmills, 23 small engines, 25 feed brinders, 24 harrows and many other items to say nothing of two car loads of wire and a few milking machines.

PANHANDLE PRESS CONVENTION

One of the most successful conventions ever held by the Panhandle Press Association was the 34th annual convention at Amarillo. It was a convention of delightful surprises. These surprises popped up so fast that those attending were almost swept off their feet by the rapidity of these events.

The attendance was the first big surprise. This was the second largest convention in recent years. With 240 registered, all records of recent years were swept aside. "We couldn't take a vacation this year; our gasoline would just make the round trip; and we knew we would have a big time, so here we are," stated many of the older members of the association. That seemed generally to sum up the reason for this surprisingly large attendance.

The entertainment was extra fine, and full of surprises. The trip to the Amarillo Army Air Field Friday noon was a wonderful revelation. There the Flying Fortresses and many other types of bombers and fighter planes were seen. That massive giant of the air, the Flying Fortress, is all that its name signifies. No wonder this capable ship in the hands of such well trained pilots as Uncle Sam is turning out is wrecking the hopes of the Axis for air supremacy.

Several military men and one military woman appeared on the program. True to military tradition, each speaker got right down to brass tacks, and in clear concise words brought messages which were of great benefit to the publishers.

The biggest surprise of the convention came Friday night when Colonel Ernest O. Thompson was able to bring to the banquet Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson, Senator Burnet P. Maybank of South Carolina, Congressman R. Ewing Thomason of El Paso and members of their party. These men, who are guiding the affairs of the army, spoke most encouragingly of the progress being made toward a final and complete victory over the Axis. It would have been fine for every mother in the Panhandle who have sons in the fighting forces to have listened to those words of encouragment.

The entertainment of the Amarillo Army Air Field Friday night and that by 45 enlisted men from the Pampa Army Air Field Saturday noon were the highlights of the convention.

The appearance of these soldiers before the newspaper folks was a source of great information. This is truly a citizens army. 90% of the men and officers in this army a few months ago were civilians in the various walks of life in every town, city and community of the nation. They are in uniform today because the security of their nation is threatened. They want to get the job done so that they may return to civilian life.

Advice of one officer was: "Write to those boys in uniform. Write optimistically. They need your support, and a good letter from home is the greatest support you can give them."

Speaking to the newspaper men: "You handle a commodity that is the most useful and the most dangerous to the army—information." News is a trust. Americans were asked not to become impatient when news was withheld. The lack of news makes possible a surprise attack on the enemy. The North Africa campaign was a success only because of the element of surprise—or lack of news.

The citizens of Amarillo contributed much this year to make the convention a great success. While there was somewhat of a feeling before the convention that this might be the last gathering for the duration, the members were enthusiastic in planning for the 35th annual convention to be held in Amarillo next year. Jimmie Gillentine, co-publisher of the Hereford Brand, was elected president for the coming year.

DON'T SPREAD YELLOW PAINT

It is a cowardly thing to spread yellow paint on someone you do not like. It is more cowardly to use yellow paint on a man whom you would like to see forced into the army.

General Hershey, head of Selective Service, made a statement the other day which he should never have made. It was totally uncalled for, and may lead to spreading yellow paint by a certain element of many communities by people who like to do under the cover of darkness things which they are afraid to do in daylight.

The General called upon citizens to shame young men into military service who have been deferred. The General had no business making such a statement unless he is peeved at the reactions of his own orders, and disgusted with the manner in which Congress is hampering the induction of young men. Many single men are in agriculture or munition factories while the army is forced to take married men. If the General is peeved, so is every person who is handicapped by the regulations of Selective Service. But he has no right to invite men and women to use yellow paint, or to invite them to insult young men who are out of service under the regulations which are set up by his own department.

It is well known that between two and three million able bodied single men are being deferred because of their jobs, and because Selective Service has set up regulations which protect these single men from military service. These men are in vital jobs, according to the admission of General Hershey. Why embarrass these boys by pointing an accusing finger at them, and demanding as to why they are not in service? If these young men are exempt from military service because of their jobs, then they are rendering as necessary a service to the nation as those who are fighting for the nation. They should not be shamed because General Hershey has ruled that they are vital to the welfare of the nation in their present jobs, rather than picking up a gun to fight.

Since the new Congress was elected, Selective Service has been in such a constant change of rules that no one knows what the rules really are, or what they will be tomorrow. Local Selective Service boards regret that they cannot tell men what to expect, or how they should plan for the future.

When husbands and fathers are taken away from their wives and families and these two or three million single boys stay at home, Congress and General Hershey may decide that more adjustments are needed in order to keep the citizens satisfied with the administration of Selective Service.

The News received a pleasant call Monday from two citizens who were among the farmers of Carson county ejected from their homes early in 1942, and who have never been paid a cent for their land. It seems that the federal court appointed a committee of three to set a price on the land. This was done but some one in Washington decided that the price was not right. The land owners have the choice of accepting what some bureaucrat in Washington believes is a correct price for Carson county land; or of bringing suit in federal court for the value they set on their land. Isn't that a fine mess? Families were ejected from their homes about 14 months ago; set out in the world without property or crops, no chance of re-establishing themselves on some other land. The brass collar bureaucrat in Washington, who has probably never seen the Panhandle, say that price is more than the government should pay, in spite of the price set by the representatives of the court. There is little choice left. The land owners must either accept a smaller price than they are justly entitled to, or hire lawyers to go to court. Anyone who has had experience in fighting cases in court would recommend the land owners to be skinned by the bureaucrat instead of giving a big part of their land to lawyers to keep the case in court for months and maybe years. Letters are being sent to Senator Tom Connally, Senator O'Daniel, and Congressman Eugene Worley to see to it that a just settlement is given to the land owners.

Buying bonds is a personal affair so far as the individual is concerned. But those who do not buy bonds are assuming that someone else will do their part, and therefore, the war will be won without any particular effort put forth by them. If any American citizen thought that the war would be lost because of the lack of bond buying on his part, there is not a sane citizen who would not rush down today and invest everything they had in bonds. But too many people are taking it for granted that the war will be won in a short time. Too many assume that their neighbors will buy the bonds, and allow them to go ahead making 10% or 50% on their money. Let's all be patriotic citizens and buy bonds to the limit. The boys who are on the fighting line have no opportunity to hold back 90%, so why should any of us be satisfied with investing only 10% of what we make in the surest bonds in the world.

That may have been a million dollar rain last week—but it was the first in 1943, and we need a lot more than the .65 of an inch which actually fell. We're thankful for this start, but we must have a lot more in order to make a good wheat crop.

Dallas Officer Visits Campus on Inspection Tour

Lieutenant (S. G) E. O. Robinson, of the United States Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board at Dallas, inspected the Naval Aviation cadets stationed at West Texas State College early last week.

Lieutenant Robinson's inspection was general and included all aspects of the training and discipline of the cadets. Although no definite report has been made, it is understood that Lieutenant Robinson found conditions entirely satisfactory, according to Dr. W. L. Ball.

Dr. Ball, formerly of Amarillo, is the chief ground instructor for the detachment.

Call us ... IF YOU HAVE AN EXTRA ELECTRICAL APPLIANCE... WE MAY KNOW SOMEONE WHO CAN USE IT:

Due to wartime conditions, there will be no more electric appliances manufactured for the duration, and the thought has come to us that a large number of our customers over a period of years have received duplicate appliances as Christmas gifts, wedding gifts or anniversary gifts, and would like to dispose of these items while they are so badly needed by other customers.

If you will furnish our office with the name, model, condition and price of the extra electric appliances you have on hand, we shall be glad to post them in our office in order that customers needing this type of appliance may purchase them from you. A number of appliances have already been placed through our assistance.

Military Detachment Here Is Inspected

Captain D. L. Echols and Administrative Staff To Get Science Building

Military inspections for the purpose of gathering data to be used in West Texas State's contract with the U. S. Air Forces were made Monday by commissioned and civilian technicians.

In the party were Major C. H. Swick of Lubbock, representing General Richard Donovan; Lieut. A. S. Wahlstrom of Wichita, Kans., representing the Air Forces contracting office; Lieut. R. G. Glenn, QMC, from the headquarters of the 8th Corps Area; H. B. Hawley, from the U. S. Army engineers offices at Denison; Floyd R. Reilly, fire inspector, Dallas; and L. A. Wick, Wichita, Kans.

Writing of the contract is a lengthy procedure. Completion of all details, based on experience in handling the military detachment, will require several weeks.

Administrative officers of the detachment, Capt. D. L. Echols, commandant, and Lt. Manly D. Ballard, adjutant, Monday began moving into the new Science Building. With them went the administrative clerks.

Remaining at the recreation hall of Buffalo Courts are Capt. Oscar Jacobi, director of military training, and First Lieut. Milton E. Wray and Lt. Earl B. Essing, tactical officers, and their assistants.

A new class schedule is placing many groups in the fine new classrooms of the Science Building.

Merging of the original units and the newer groups, which were identical in size, has been completed. For academic purposes these have been divided into five quintiles. They attend classes in flights of forty men each.

Whether going to class or engaged in military programs, the trainees march in groups. Much drilling has, in fact produced a bumper crop of blistered feet. . . . More than a score of the men have, on the average day, reported to the hospital for medical care.

The outdoor swimming pool is filled and ready for customers, but only a few of the hardier Air Forces men have tested the effects of cold water and dry Panhandle air. Once was enough. With arrival of really warm days, however, instruction in swimming will start on a large scale with Ralph Davis, former student manager, in charge.

The regular dance in the Women's gymnasium was enjoyed by many soldiers Saturday. Some men rated invitations to the Pi Omega presentation dance, while others had Sunday dinner invitations.

Casual observers could never guess, as the detachment units march by, what well known athletes, professional men, etc. are before them. For instance, there's Robert W. Sphect of Superior, Wis., a former student of Superior State Teachers College and of the University of Chicago . . . a math major . . . artist . . . star golfer . . . star swimmer . . . a track man . . . and professional ice skater, formerly with Icecapades. . . . He won the national novice figure skating title in 1939, national junior title in 1940, and was national senior champion in 1942, when he turned professional. He also held several titles in midwestern states. . . . And no ice here!

The Legislative Grapevine

By GRADY HAZLEWOOD
Senator 31st District

The Grapevine is: — Governor Coke Stevenson will not run for re-election as Governor of Texas. The Governor is spending from twelve to sixteen hours per day in connection with the duties of this office and no man can stand up under this kind of strain for a very long period. He continues to get up at five o'clock in the morning and is in his office at six a. m. He reads word for word every single bill the legislature passes, studying carefully its form and possible invalidity because of defective form or substance.

Soon a very strong move will be made to set up the Governor as the Democratic nominee for the Vice Presidency of the United States at at the next general election. Life Magazine will have an issue with several pages devoted to Governor Stevenson at an early date.

Assuming that Governor Coke Stevenson does not run for re-election, Lieutenant Governor John Lee Smith will be a certain candidate for this office; Attorney General Gerald Mann may be prevailed upon to run although the Attorney General has always aspired to be United States Senator rather than Governor. The Attorney general feels that he could render a much greater public service as United States Senator than as Governor.

Passed by the Senate were all the major appropriation bills which totaled something like fourteen million dollars less than for the last biennium. A considerable part of this reduction is because of the lack of any building program for educational and eleemosynary institutions which were in the budget during the last biennium. However, the general tone of the bills reflected much economy which the Senate felt was necessary because of the burdensome nature of federal taxation.

Senate Bill No. 256, of which the writer is the author, and which would require the Public Welfare Board to appoint a new executive director within the ten days from the effective date of the Act traveled some strange courses over in the House. One House committee killed the bill by a vote of seven to four and refused to send it out on a minority report. Yet, members of this same committee later voted to impeach the director. A day or two later the House re-referred the bill by an almost unanimous vote to the Committee on State Affairs, which committee voted it out favorably. Why the first committee killed the bill would make very interesting reading matter, but it is now again predicted that the House will pass this measure almost without opposition.

P. T. A. DISTRICT MEET HELD IN AMARILLO

The District meeting of the Parent Teachers Association was held in Amarillo Friday. The local officers of the P. T. A. were elected as delegates to attend the meeting.

Only four were able to attend; they were Mrs. Burney Slack, Mrs. P. L. Walters, Mrs. Worth Jennings, and Mrs. Ray McReynolds.

The theme of the day's program was "Our Concern Over Youth," which was presented by the district president, Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard, of Memphis.

There were two addresses during the morning. Mrs. Jack M. Little, State President, had as her subject "We, The Builders." Dr. A. Caswell Ellis discussed "Our Perils—How to Make Them Strong."

Luncheon was served in the dining room of the First Christian Church.

The afternoon program consisted of departmental conferences and round table by youth of different schools. Their subject was "What Do Youth Need?"

The response of their discussion was given by different superintendents of the district. They referred to how the schools were trying to the needs of the youth.

J. B. Speer, superintendent of the Canyon Public Schools, participated in the discussion.

HIGHLAND H. D. CLUB WITH MRS. FULTON

The Highland Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. L. J. Fulton, April 6.

An exhibit of various garments made from old suits, dresses, and other odd materials, such as feed sacks, costumes and etc., were displayed by Miss Frances Wilroy. A variety of seam and hem finishes, plackets and bound plackets were also on display, and discussed. All these things correctly done add to the durability and attractiveness of a garment.

It was proved by the things displayed, that remodeled garmens are worth one's time and effort, since some of them had to be used for several seasons.

The club president presided and a motion was made and carried, to adopt the report of the council delegate. The finance chairman gave a favorable report on the "42" tournament that is being conducted by the members.

Refreshments of salad, sandwiches and coffee were served to Mrs. Pearl Nesselroad, Mrs. George Cook, Miss Wilroy, Mrs. Jack Baker, Mrs. Elmer Mason, Mrs. C. H. Roark, Mrs. Thomas Watson and Mrs. Fulton, by Misses Joanne Fulton and Dorothy Roark.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Cook, on Tuesday, April 20.

Pan-Americanism Discussed Tuesday at Rotary Club

Lester Sheffy was in charge of the Rotary Club program Tuesday discussing Pan-American Day, which was observed yesterday.

The speaker traced the growth of relations between North and South America since 1890, and the 50 to 60 conferences which had been held between the nations of the two continents.

The fear of South America of the United States, and the ties between South America and Europe have been the greatest handicap of greater unity. The fallacy of safety in the Atlantic ocean is now being impressed upon South America, with only 1600 miles separating that continent from Africa.

There are four different Americas: Canada, a part of the British Empire; Brazil, of Portuguese descent; 19 separate Latin-American states, not too closely united; the United States, greater than the others. There are racial, religious and industrial difference which have been hard to overcome.

Facts which lead toward unity are: Geographical unity; colonization about the same time, growing up together, and became independent about the same time; common fear of absolutism of Europe; tied together by natural resources.

The two continents are now tied by a system of air fields; the Pan-American highway is under construction; and after the war our faces will be turned to the east, rather than to the west.

The concern of both continents is the overwhelming population of China, Russia, India and the other Eastern countries as compared with the population of our continents. Fortunately we are a century ahead of the Asiatics in unification.

The Good Neighbor policy of President Roosevelt and Cordell Hull is doing much to cement South America to us. We must learn their language; we must treat them right; we must make them understand us; and the two continents must become the arsenal of Democracy.

Visitors were: Marion Bisher, former president; Fred Brian of Amarillo; Major C. H. Swick of Lubbock; Lt. A. S. Wahlstrain of Wichita Falls; Lt. R. L. Glenn of Dallas; F. R. Rally of Dallas; H. B. Hawley of Denison.

RATION REMINDER

Gasoline—"A" book coupons No. 5 good for four gallons each until May 31.

Sugar—Coupon No. 12 good for 5 lbs. Must last through May 31.

Coffee—Stamp No. 26 (1 lb.) expires April 25.

Shoes—No. 17 stamp in War Ration Book One good for one pair through June 15.

Food—Red C stamps, valid April 11, good for 16 points of meat, cheese, and butter. Blue stams D, E, and F good from March 25 thru April 30, for 48 points.

"THEY GIVE THEIR LIVES—YOU LEND YOUR MONEY"

The Second War Loan Drive—which began April 12—must raise the astounding sum of thirteen billion dollars to support American armies that are now attacking the enemy. An offensive Army requires ammunition and materials that cost staggering sums of money. For example—one night raid of 1,000 bombers over the Rhineland takes $375,000 worth of gasoline. A million dollars worth of bombs may be dropped in that raid, and 10 or 11 million dollars worth of planes may be destroyed.

In the future, America's armies will undertake still greater attacks, and these in turn will require still more money. The 13 billion dollars must be raised in addition to the regular purchases of war bonds and stamps that our people are making now. Slogan for the Second War Loan Drive is: "THEY GIVE THEIR LIVES—YOU LEND YOUR MONEY."

RATION BOOKS FOR SERVICE MEN

Service men who eat 10 or more meals per week away from the Army Post are entitled to Ration Book Two.

ARMY HAS VICTORY GARDENS

Many Army camps have their victory gardens, where suitable soil is handy to living quarters. They produce whatever the men prefer, or whatever crop seems best suited to the location. Army gardens are nothing new, but now they are on a larger scale. However, they will not interfere with training. The men who conduct them may do so only as a voluntary off-time recreational activity. Food produced will be for the consumption of military personnel only and not for sale.

FARMERS GET POINTS FOR MEAT

When a farmer sells a slaughtered calf direct to a retail meat market, the operator must surrender the right number of points to the farmer. The farmer must then turn the stamps over to the ration board.

RETURN UNUSED GAS COUPONS

Unused gasoline ration coupons and books which are no longer valid are the property of the government and must be turned in within five days after the close of the period of validity. Holders of unused first quarter "T" gasoline coupons, which have not expired, are asked to turn them in immediately to their local rationing boards.

MEN BACK TO DAIRY FARMS

Local Selective Service boards have been told to return men with experience to dairy farms. The program includes—

1. Persuading 4F men between 18 and 45 with experience to return to dairy farms if they are not in an essential activity.

2. Getting men over 45, not engaged in essential activity, to go back to dairy farming.

3. Giving men 18 to 45 thirty days to get into agriculture or another essential activity, otherwise they will be classified as available for military service.

FROZEN VEGETABLES FOR ALL

There will be plenty of frozen vegetables in 1943 for the armed forces without cutting the supply available for civilian use, the War Department has announced. The pack of quick-frozen vegetables this year will be between 240,000,000 and 260,000,000 pounds, according to present U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates, as compared with a pack of 162,000,000 last year. The supply for civilian consumption will be equal or more than that available last year.

EGG STORAGE DATA SOUGHT

Seeking information to be used as a basis for issuing permits to handle cold storage eggs after June 1, the Food Distribution Administration office at Dallas has asked persons or firms in Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana, having facilities for cold storage of eggs, to submit a working inventory of transactions in eggs during the past marketing season. The FDA order, effective after June 1, specifically prohibits eggs from moving into cold storage after the effective date withoua a permit from FDA.

The order also requires all eggs in storage on May 31 to be set aside for purchase by the Government or for distribution otherwise only on written authority from FDA. Those affected by the order include all warehousemen, dealers and others having as much as 1,500 cubic feet of egg storage space which can be refrigerated to 40 degrees Fahrenheit or less.

FEWER POINTS, LESS MONEY

Butchers may no longer reduce point values of rationed meats and fats without at the same time lowering money prices. If the retailer lowers the point value, he must lower the price at least 25 per cent below ceiling. If he lowers the point value more than 25 per cent, the selling price must be reduced below ceiling in proportion, but in no case more than 50 per cent.

RUBBER TIRES FOR TRACTORS

A plan to assist farmers in their vital wartime food production will provide rubber tires and tubes for converting approximately 20,000 tractors and implements, originally equipped with steel wheels, which have been bought since May 1, 1942. Local OPA War Price and Rationing Boards will authorize conversions after certification of farmers applications by county war boards. Reasons for certification are: 1. Necessity of moving implement over the road from farm to farm; 2, soil or topography such that tractor is seriously handicapped by not having rubber tires.

MEAT REQUIREMENT SUSPENDED

Suspension of the requirement that federally inspected slaughterers set aside certain percentages of their production for government purchase has been extended indefinitely. The requirement originally was suspended for a two-week period to facilitate a more even flow of meat under the rationing program. The suspension does not affect the meat restriction order setting up civilian quotas. The Food Distribution Administration has issued an order limiting the quality of meat federally inspected slaughterers may hold in storage. Thus meat over and above civilian quotas produced by this class of slaughterers will immediately be available to the government.

IMPORT JAMACIAN WORKERS

Ten thousand agricultural workers will be imported from Jamacia to relieve the farm labor shortage in critical areas in the U. S. through an agreement between the two governments. The Jamacian worker will not replace U. S. farm laborers nor reduce established wage rates. Health authorities will check the physical fitness and when workers contracts expire, the laborers will be returned to Jamacia. Similar agreements have been made with Mexico and the Bahama Islands.

SEED POTATOES

Retailers are now permitted to sell potatoes in any quantity for planting purposes only. The former requirement that they be sold only in lots of 50 pounds, or more, has been removed by OPA.

FOOD FOR DEMONSTRATIONS

Schools using foods for educational purposes, and other food demonstration groups may get allotments of rationed foods by applying to their local rationing board. Many of these groups are conducting projects directly related to the government's food conservation program.

RESERVE PEAS AND BEANS

Fifty-five per cent of dry edible beans and 60 per cent of dry peas and split peas are to be reserved for military needs and the use of our Allies. The average civilian will have about eight pounds of dry beans or 90 per cent of his usual supply and nearly one pound of dry peas, or about 75 per cent. For dry beans this is about one pound more per capita than was expected for this year at the time beans and peas were added to the list of rationed foods.

TO SUPPORT WOOL PRICES

Under a price support program for wool, the Commodity Credit Corporation will buy wool from growers at prices equal to the current ceiling prices less certain allowances. The 1942 wool production, estimated at 460 million pounds, was the largest on record. Prices to producers averaged approximately 40 cents per pound, about 4½ cents higher than in 1941, and the highest since 1920.

BINDER TWINE PRICE UP

Binder twine prices will be somewhat higher this year, because of the increased cost of materials. Cordage and twine fibers, from which binder twine has been made in the past, are scarce. WPB and the U. S. Department of Agriculture have therefore, encouraged use of part cotton yarn combined with henequin and sisal. These fibers are more expensive than materials formerly used.

LETTUCE PRICES SET

Maximum prices which distributors may pay for lettuce and uniform markups for all other handlers of the vegetable were set by regional OPA authorities, effective April 7. Maximum f. o. b. shipping point prices which distributors may use in determining their net costs are as follows: Iceberg type head lettuce—crate (4 or 5 dozen heads)—maximum price is $4.50 per crate; Iceberg type lettuce—crate (6 dozen heads)—maximum price is $3.50 per crate. Specific markups are allowed handlers.

MORE CANNED FISH THIS YEAR

The amount of canned fish available to civilians from the 1943 pack should be somewhat larger than from last year's pack. Due to a smaller carryover of canned fish in 1943, however, the per capita supply for this year may be about three-fourths of the 1942 civilian consumption.

T-RATIONS NOT TRANSFERABLE

T-ration gasoline coupons and certificates of war necessity may not be transferred along with titles to trucks or other commercial vehicles. The Office of Defense Transportation has announced that such action directly violates ODT general order No. 21 and may be punished by suspension or revocation of certificates. Persons who receive a motor vehicle through transfer should file an application for certificate of war necessity. Operators of one or two vehicles who make a transfer must return certificate to their ODT district office and must surrender unused T coupons to their local war price and rationing board. Fleet operators must advise the nearest ODT district office and return the appropriate sub-certificate.

WOMEN ON RAILROADS

Women employed on class 1 railroads increased almost 60 per cent from September 15, 1942 to January 15, 1943. A survey by the Interstate Commerce Commission shows that in September 39,0590 women were employed in 49 types of jobs on the nation's railroads. By January, the number had risen to 63,187 and the types of jobs to 74. State labor regulations do not prevent the employment of women in transportation industries.

NEW PRICE FOR "SECONDS"

New tires and tubes which have imperfections are now sold under separate maximum wholesale and retail prices set by OPA. The new prices are based on discounts of 20 per cent from the maximum price for perfect truck tires and tubes, and 25 per cent for other types.

REDUCED VEHICLE SPEEDS

State support of the nation-wide 35-mile limit has effectively reduced motor-vehicle speeds on rural roads. Fifty-three per cent of all cars still travel in excess of 35 miles per hour; ninety-one per cent were exceeding this limit about a year ago. Rationing had little effect on speeds, but the appeal for a 40-mile limit about a year ago reduced average passenger-car speed from 47 to 44 miles per hour. The federal order for a 35-mile limit, effective last October, brought the average down to about 37 miles per hour.

MORE CAN OPENERS

Production of can openers for civilian purposes will be more than twice as much as previously allowed. The quota, previously held to 85 per cent of the base period rate including Army orders, has been increased to 50 per cent, not including military requirements.

FARM TRAILER SHORTAGE

An increasing shortage of trailers to handle farm produce is reported by the truck trailer industry advisory committee. The need for trucking facilities to transport farm products is now pressing in some sections of the country and will increase with the coming of warm weather and harvesting. The committee pointed out as an example the situation in Texas where there are some 2,600 towns not served by any railroad.

Fight on the Farm

This war is going to be won by the Allies because the farmers are raising the needed foods to keep our fighting men in the field, and in sustaining our civilians at home; in addition we must provide more Food for your distressed Allies and the conquered nations.

Handling foods is a major problem. As Food merchants, we realize this great obligation to our nation and to the people of Randall county. That is the reason we say that BELLAH'S are doing everything possible to keep you informed as to Food problems and Food regulations. Our obligation is to both the people at home and to the men in the fighting units. Bring your Food problems to BELLAH'S every week—and we will help you in winning the war with sufficient and nourishing foods.

We must all buy more War Bonds to keep our great war machine active

'Coddling' Cuts U. S. Manpower

Modern Living Said to Involve Too Much of Setting; Running Urged

Coddling of the nation's youth by automobiles, double feature movies and the radio is reflected in a recent war manpower commission announcement that more than 40 per cent of draft registrants are being rejected according to Prof. Leon Kranz, head of Northwestern university's department of physical education.

Prof. Kranz, who was a lieutenant in the army air corps during World War I, says the rejection rate of 35 per cent during that war was serious enough, but that the current rate offers challenge to educational and health authorities. He maintains that many defects which show up in the prime of life originate from unhygienic practices during childhood.

"Before gas rationing it was a common practice to see youngsters riding to school in the family automobile," he said. "They sit through three or four hours at a stretch in the movies and then lounge before the radio for several hours. These practices are going on at a time when the youngsters should be building bodies for the future.

"We are not beginning in this country to do a proper job of training our youth in helpful physical pursuits."

Americans, in Kranz's opinion, have glorified the white collar worker and abandoned use of the hands except for getting food to the body and dressing themselves. Even walking is avoided whenever possible, he said. Kranz blames the high percentage of rejections among older men to what he claims is a misdirected physical training program.

"The reason men degenerate so rapidly after 25," he said, "is because they give up the activities of youth and do not replace them with a suitable program. If we could create in the minds of men the importance of continuing training after they have given up participation in so-called strenuous games, then we could continue to maintain a high level of body-conditioning well beyond the present age."

In this regard, the Northwestern educator challenges the exercise value of two of America's most popular sports, golf and bowling. He asserts it is a delusion to believe that participation in these sports provides an adequate program of physical fitness. These sports are valuable chiefly for their social relationships and not as conditioners, says Kranz, who shoots golf in the 70's and bowls in the 200's.

Kranz recommends that three parts of the body most neglected in everyday activity be given special attention. They are the abdomen or midsection, the feet, and arms and shoulders. For the first he suggests lying on the back and repeatedly raising the head and shoulders to a trunk-curl position. This is done by contracting the abdominal daily. To strengthen the feet he recommends more active use of the toes in walking. For the arms and shoulders he suggests some activity in which the body weight is supported, such as chinning or pull-ups.

As a general conditioner, Kranz recommends running according to the individual's capacity. Running, he said, is becoming a lost art and must be revived in order to raise the level of fitness.

Emma Lazarus

Emma Lazarus (1849-87), the American-born Jewish poet, whose sonnet, written the year before her death, appears on the pedestal of the Statue of Liberty, also was known as an essayist. She wrote impassionedly against the persecution of her race in "Songs of a Semite." In addition she wrote "Alide," a romance based on the life of Goethe, and translated the poems of Heine. During the 1880s she gave great assistance to the Russian Jews.

Canyon Air News

Hello, Folks:

Well, for the past week the wind has been more in our favor out here, and our cadets have perked up considerably. Who tried that old Indian trick we asked for?

The cadets have been alternating on the grader and roller out on the field—most of them getting quite a kick out of riding on and driving a tractor for the first time. They have come in off the field quite dirty and dusty, but evidently enjoying every bit of it.

George Cox has been working very hard with his crew on our new hangar, and it has been progressing very rapidly. It should be finished in time for our new shipment of planes, at the rate they are going now.

We have been asked several times to explain the presence, on occasion, of so many planes over town between nine and twelve o'clock at night. A cross-country school is located at Plainview, and the flights are merely routine to our field and back to their home base.

As we approach the end of a program, we are all kept pretty much to schedule, and that doesn't leave much time for any one to get into mischief, so we can't seem to work in any more news.

We'll see you next week.

The Gang in the Pilot House.

Agriculture in Industry

By FLORENCE C. WEED

Rabbits

California is the leader in rabbit production although no complete figures for the nation are available. It is known that in the Los Angeles trade area, 1,600,000 pounds of rabbit meat have been sold in one year. The U. S. Rabbit Experiment station is located at Fontana, Calif., where studies are being made in breeding, fur and wool production and marketing. Rabbit raising has thrived in the West because the mild climate permits open air hutches.

Most of the income is made by selling rabbits for meat. This compares favorably with other meats in protein. It has less fat and costs less per pound than expensive cuts of beef and lamb.

This country has imported an average of nearly 91,000,000 pounds of dressed rabbit pelts and it would seem that there might be a bright outlook for selling furs and pelts. Efficiency studies show, however, that meat is the more dependable outlet. Because of the cost of stock, it requires more money to raise rabbits than poultry.

California raises more Angora rabbits than any other state. Much rabbit wool is imported and some California people have obtained a better price per pound for wool when it was spun into yarn at home and then sold to department stores.

Minerals for Hogs

Feed proper minerals to hogs at all times. Market hogs make cheaper gains, brood sows raise more thrifty pigs, and healthier hogs are produced when minerals are used. By using a protein supplement, such as a mixture of equal parts of cottonseed, peanut, or soybean oil meal with tankage, or shrimp meal, farmers can grow out their pigs and fatten their hogs with about half as much corn or sweet potatoes as when these feeds are used alone.

France's N. African Naval Base

Bizerte has been rated France's leading naval base in North Africa. Its population, before the war, was estimated at between 20 and 25 thousand, including a settlement of 6,000 naval workers and their families, and a military garrison.

Chicken and Rice—Fine Favorite for Easter
(See Recipes Below)

Easter Essentials

How differently you will plan your Easter dinner this year! You may have to forget many of the traditional foods and use only what your ration points will allow you—or what you can obtain at the grocer's.

Many of you in former times had baked ham or leg of lamb, but perhaps this year it may be chicken, or whatever ration points will allow. So, get out your ration points and put on your thinking caps, ladies, and see what we can have to make this dinner a success.

Markets throughout the country will have different meats available for your selection. A lot will depend upon how well you have saved your points to splurge on this occasion.

If you plan chicken, stretch it with rice as we do in this recipe:

Fricassee of Chicken.
(Serves 6 to 8)
4-pound chicken
¼ cup flour
3 tablespoons chicken fat
2 teaspoons salt
Paprika
3½ cups boiling water
Freshly boiled rice

Clean chicken and cut into serving portions. Dredge with flour and brown in fat. Add seasonings and boiling water to half cover. Simmer, closely covered, until tender, about 1½ to 3 hours. If desired, place in oven to brown slightly after tender, and serve with boiled rice.

Some of you will perhaps be fortunate enough to obtain lamb. If you cannot obtain a leg of lamb, a shoulder cut will be nice to serve with this barbecue sauce:

Lamb Shoulder, Barbecued.
4 pounds shoulder of lamb
1 medium onion
½ cup chili sauce
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
Dash of cayenne
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 cup water

Mix onion, chili sauce, seasonings with vinegar and water. Pour over lamb which has been wiped with a damp cloth and place in pan with tightly fitting cover. Cover. Bake at 350 degrees for 3½ hours.

Orange and Greens Salad.
(Serves 8)
4 cups coarsely shredded greens (lettuce, endive, watercress)
¼ cup sliced, stuffed green olives
½ cup diced orange sections
¼ cup chopped green pepper
¼ cup salad oil
4 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon celery seed
½ teaspoon worcestershire sauce

Combine salad greens with oranges, olives, green pepper. Mix salad oil, lemon juice and seasonings. Just before serving toss lightly together, mixing well together.

Lynn Says:

How to Save Ration Points: If your old recipes call for tomato juice, tomato soup and other canned tomatoes, substitute brown gravy. In most cases, it will work quite well.

Substitute fresh fruits for canned and dried fruits in desserts and buy heavily of citrus fruits. Serve them sectioned or sliced. Use seasonal fruits generously, as applesauce and rhubarb.

Store any excess water from cooked vegetables, and have it well covered when stored. Use in soups, gravies and stews.

When cookie recipes call for dried fruits, omit them or use them sparingly.

Omit chili sauce, catsup and chow chow from menus. Use them for seasoning foods such as meat when cooking or for sandwiches when necessary.

Corn Bread.
2 cups yellow corn meal
2 cups sweet milk
4 teaspoons baking powder
3 tablespoons bacon drippings or shortening
1 tablespoon sugar
1¼ teaspoons salt
1 egg

Mix dry ingredients together. Beat egg, add milk and bacon drippings to it, then blend into dry ingredients. Pour into a well-greased shallow pan which has been heated. Bake in a 425-degree oven for 30 minutes.

An upside-down cake would make a lovely closing to an Easter dinner. What to make it with? There are several items, first of which is rhubarb — fresh and strawberry-colored. You could use apples, if you like, or fruit cocktail which does not take as many points as other canned fruits.

Rhubarb Upside-Down Cake.
(Serves 8)
4 cups cut rhubarb
1 cup sugar
1¾ cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
⅛ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
½ teaspoon almond extract
½ teaspoon vanilla extract
½ cup milk

Cook rhubarb over low heat until juice begins to run. Add sugar and mix well. Simmer about 10 minutes and pour into a greased cake pan. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cream shortening, add sugar, and beat until fluffy. Add egg yolks and flavorings and beat thoroughly. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry and fold into mixture. Pour over rhubarb and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 40 to 50 minutes. Loosen cake from sides of pan and turn onto platter.

If you desire a simpler dessert, try these:

Lemon Sponge Cups.
(Serves 6)
2 tablespoons butter
¾ cup sugar
4 tablespoons all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon salt
5 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
3 eggs, separated
1½ cups milk

Cream butter, add sugar, flour, salt, lemon juice and rind. Add well-beaten egg yolks which have been mixed with milk. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into greased custard cups. Set in a pan of hot water and bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Cool and unmold.

Table Decorations

If your food is simpler this year, don't feel that your table need lack festivity suitable for the Easter occasion. In many of your gardens daffodils or jonquils and tulips will be out—ready and waiting to do their nicest for your Easter dinner.

An effective centerpiece can be made from as few as a half dozen daffodils with their own green foliage in a shallow bowl. Have table accessories harmonize with this color scheme by using a pale yellow or white cloth with napkins.

If your taste—or your garden runs to tulips, try deep red tulips with white snapdragons.

Farm Curves Aid To Victory Effort

New Land Patterns Making Appearance

Farming on the contour, following the "curve of the land," is helping to win the war for the United Nations.

A revolutionary method, farming on the contour not only is helping produce bigger yields but also it is saving soil and water to insure a continued longtime productive capacity. Cost of production, too, has been cut as much as 70 cents per acre by contour farming because conservation methods save fuel, fertilizer, time, machinery-wear and labor—all essential to a wartime production economy.

Just as Columbus had faith in his belief that the world was not flat and proved it by discovering the continent which now has become the hemisphere of the Americas, men today have proved that the land can be farmed successfully and profitably on the contour. Just as Washington and Jefferson saw in their day a need for soil conservation practices, men of the past half century also have seen the good earth washing and blowing away, and have developed the remedy.

Vernie Marshall of Texas is one of the current group of men who has seen the effects of soil erosion and who has assumed leadership in helping to solve the problem. Long a pioneer of the idea that farmers must act to check soil erosion, Vernie Marshall was largely responsible for enactment of the Soil Conservation Districts law in the Lone Star state. As administrator of the Soil Conservation board he is promoting the cause of conservation farming, and more than 70 districts have been organized in Texas under supervision of the board.

Twelve-year-old son of J. C. Taylor, Coryell county, Texas, helps his father improve the farm. Taylor practices contour cultivation, strip cropping and terracing. Well-vegetated terrace outlets and reseeded pasture complete the farm conservation program.

"Straight" farming, with the fence-rows and up and over the hills and slopes, once was common practice and resulted in immense erosion problems. In 1935 and 1936 there were six million acres of land subject to erosion in the Dust Bowl area.

During the past few years farmers have worked co-operatively together and have established erosion control measures.

Chicken Disease Control

Cecal coccidiosis, a disease particularly destructive to chickens, has been effectively prevented experimentally and may eventually be controlled by the use of a chemical compound developed for this purpose.

Cecal coccidiosis is caused by microscopic organisms known as protozoa which invade and attack the cell lining of the cecal pouches of poultry, causing stunting, weakness, and eventual death.

While several sulphur compounds have shown some promise, tetraethyl thiuram monosulfide, when fed experimentally in unadulterated form, appears to be the most satisfactory drug yet tested.

Decision to concentrate further investigation on tetraethyl thiuram monosulfide is based on the results of preliminary experiments conducted at the University of Wisconsin.

Farm Notes

To relieve fertilizer manufacturers of distress caused by rising labor and other operating costs, permission was recently granted them to increase prices of mixed fertilizers and of superphosphate.

BUY MORE WAR BONDS REGULARLY.

THE 2nd WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

America....you've got to get tougher!

AMERICA — Let's be frank about it . . . so far, many of us back home have been fighting this war from an easy chair.

Many of us have bought War Bonds out of extra cash, out of money we didn't miss too much. We haven't been really tough with ourselves.

But this war is a hard, down-to-reality war. And many of our boys are dying in it.

We've got to buy MORE

So your government asks you to buy Bonds and more Bonds — to get really tough with yourself. We're asking you to give up the frills and "extras" for the rest of this war.

We know how human it is not to make sacrifices until the crisis drives us to it. In England they felt the same way until the bombs started falling. Now they can't do enough!

Bombs are such persuasive things. But just as persuasive ought to be the spirit of our brothers, sons, husbands — who are ready to give all. Think now . . . what are your dollars, compared to their lives?

If you could see

Look at it this way — suppose you had a magic carpet that could take you to Africa and New Guinea. Suppose you could hear the groan of American boys wounded, and American boys dying . . . Say now, how many Bonds would you buy?

That kind of war

THEY . . . are dying. And they will keep on dying until we drown the enemy in an overwhelming torrent of bombs, bullets, guns, tanks, planes, ships, and shells.

That's why we're asking you, in this one month of April alone, to lend Uncle Sam 13 billions of dollars — by buying War Bonds. 13 billions of extra dollars — over and above any buying that you'd be doing anyway!

A lot of money

Of course, 13 billion dollars is a lot of money. It'll take sweat and tears to raise it. It'll mean going without now. But also—it will mean savings now—to buy later. It'll mean giving up everything you can't square with your conscience, so that we, us, our children, can have a better, more decent place to live in when this war is won.

The drive is on

So during this month of April, if someone calls on you to ask you to buy War Bonds in this 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE, will you buy to the limit—and then buy more?

Better yet, will you go to your Bank, Postoffice, or wherever you're used to buying your Bonds — and buy NOW? Will you lend extra money this month? Money that can hasten the day of Victory? Money that can help to save American lives—perhaps your son's or your brother's or your husband's—by helping to shorten this war?

Money buys money

Remember, what you're really buying with your money is still more money. For after all, these Bonds are money! Money plus! Every dollar you put into War Bonds will bring you a dollar plus interest.

So the more Bonds you buy the better for you. Americans — Get Tough — with yourselves — for your country.

There Are 7 Different Types of U. S. Government Securities — Choose the Ones Best Suited for You:

United States War Savings Bonds — Series E: The perfect investment for individual and family savings. Gives you back $4 for every $3 when the Bond matures. Six Eagle Trackmen Attend Claude Meet

Registrar Relates Review

Long, long ago—oh, not very long ago—a stork flew over the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Shelton on December 21 with a small daughter named Jewel. Yes, you guessed it—this little girl is our own Mrs. Jewel Shelton Tabor. And to begin with, her birthday has always been the baine of her life since it was too near Christmas.

Airplane Provides Excitement

Like all other girls (and boys), Mrs. Tabor had thousands of good times in school (she graduated from Clyde High School), some of which she shouldn't have had, and some which proved O. K. One of the best times she experienced was when her school was notified that an airplane was going to fly over the town at a certain time. So all the students, right along with little Jewel Shelton, ran about two blocks to the to the railroad station and climbed up on some box cars—just so they'd be SURE to see this miraculous mechanism called an airplane!

With the special honor of all being graduates of West Texas State College, Mrs. Tabor's husband, Guy B. Tabor, and their two daughters, Jacqueline (Mrs. Jack Malone) and Coystal(Mrs. Harley Stone), must be reviewed. Mr. Tabor, now a junior instructor at Amarillo Army Air Field, has done graduate work at the University of Colorado and the University of Southern California, and lacks only his thesis for a master's degree.

Family Graduates From College

Jacqueline, before joining the WAACs, was a draftswoman for Consolidated Airplane Corporation in San Diego. Her husband, waiting for a call to the armed forces, is employed in this same war industry. Coystal has been teaching intermediate English in Dumas, while her husband is in primary training (Army Air Corps) in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Though she's only been teaching in Canyon Public Schools ten years, Mrs. Tabor has taught 24 years in other such Texas places as Fish, and Hubbard, rural schools, Clyde, San Antonio, Lakeview, and Farwell. Since her principal ambition is to become a good teacher, she believes that she's "just partly realized this ambition."

Tabor Lists Favorites

Let's look at a few of her favorites: food, salads; actor, George Arliss; actress, Bette Davis; radio program, news broadcasts; pastime, reading; movies, "Romeo and Juliet" and "The Man Who Played God"; Motto, "I have to live with myself, and whatever I do, I have to face it"; and, hobby, collecting earscrews! (she has 35 pairs!)

Being sponsor of the present senior class five years is one activity of Mrs. Tabor's. From her experience in working with high school boys and girls, she said, "These characteristics might be detected in my idea of a typical high school boy or girl: (1)hold high ideals for himself, (2) be prompt and earnest in regular preparation of lessons, (3) be clean physically, (4) be willing at all times to participate in good clean fun, and (5) be cooperative and truthful."

As she named a college biographical theme, this is her story "From Pillow to Now."

Students of Canyon High, it's time to WAKE UP!

There are only four more days to make enough money for one jeep, and $369.30 must be raised.

San Antonio students collected $6,770,000 at one of their victory concerts, and in our own grade school, students have bought almost enough to buy three jeeps; while we, the students of Canyon High, haven't even enough for one.

We face a real challenge. Each of us must consider this as an individual problem. Act quickly!

Grades Institute Sports Rivalry

Upper Classmen Surpass Sixth Grade Squadsmen

With basketball, volley ball, and soft ball on their schedules for competitive rivalry, sixth and seventh grade boys have pushed intramural combats into their noon sportlight. These games are played as additional features to their regular physical education periods.

Three days last week the class teams competed for the volley ball championships and the seventh grade squadsmen upheld the tally at all times with the scores varying between 15-1 and 15-12. On Monday and Wednesday of this week, grade athletes contested in soft ball games and again the upper classmen surpassed the sixth graders.

Sponsored by Miss Myrtle Hall and Coach Milton Sanders, these activities will continue until the gymnasium is available for grade school girls' opposition. Max Bosley, Don Standley, and Earl Lock Neff have assisted as referees and time keepers.

To Bruce Albers, sophomore, Marvin and John Albers, Canyon High School ex-students, and to their father, brothers, and sister, The Eagle's Tale expresses its deepest sympathy because of the death of Mrs. E. H. Albers. Also to the nieces and nephews, Barbara, Meade, and Sandra Michael; Ellen, Norris, Clyde, Harold, and Nancy Root; Austelle, Troy, and Wanelle Burrus, we extend our sympathy.

Dowd Surpasses Rival Athletes

Team Takes Fourth Place Ribbon in 880-yard-Dash

Adding two ribbons to the list of Canyon High trophies, six Eagle trackmen attended the Claude track meet last Saturday. Claude won the meet, with Amarillo as runner-up.

Winning third place in the pole-vault contest, Bobbie Dowd also ran in the 100-yard dash, the mile relay, and the quarter-mile relay. A team composed of Bobbie Dowd, Bob Copeland, J. Spencer Winn, and Marvin Davenport placed fourth in the 880-yard relay.

Entering the most events was Bob Copeland, who entered the 100 and 220-yard dashes, the quarter-mile relay, the mile relay, the broad jump, and the high jump.

J. Spencer Winn ran the mile relay and entered the 440-yard run and the quarter-mile relay.

Max Bosley entered the mile run, the 220-yard low hurdle, and the broad jump.

Billy Ray Boling participated in the 440-yard run, while Marvin Davenport ran the half-mile race and the mile relay.

These boys were coached by Milton Sanders, who took them to the meet.

Executives Select Leaders of Area

Members of the executive council Saturday elected officers for Area I of the Future Homemakers of Texas Club. This meeting was held in the office of Miss Gladys Armstrong, area supervisor.

Georgia Faye Holt, president of the Canyon High School F. H. T., was elected area president, and Ellen Sanders, corresponding secretary. They will take office some time in September.

Composed of present area officers, supervisors, and club sponsors, the council agreed that area dues must be sent in at the first of the year. Since this area has no state officers, Maxine Harp of Abernathy, who presided at the meeting, will represent Area I at the state executive council meeting to be held April 17. Because of transportation difficulties, the council meetings are held instead of the district, area, and state meetings which were held before the war.

Students Discuss Various Issues

For the purpose of organizing various activities, the six classes of Canyon High School held their regular meetings Friday morning.

Seniors discussed their spring trip, had several committee reports, and played an information game, while juniors worked on their plans for the annual junior-senior banquet.

A discussion of their class picnic at the Methodist Encampment was the main issue of the sophomore class meeting. Reports of finances occupied the freshmen's meeting.

While seventh graders practiced their assembly play under the direction of their sponsor, Mrs. Floyd Dunsworth, the eighth grade discussed plans for a picnic and a skating party.

Gushing Young Man: How I should love to be a cowboy and dash about like they do on the film!

Real Cowboy: So would I.

Homemakers Plan Nursery School

Canyon High School's homemaking department will be the scene of a 4-day nursery school beginning Tuesday, May 4.

Differing from those of previous years, this year's nursery school will be held in the afternoon as well as in the morning.

Students and teachers are planning a schedule for each day in order to make the school as interesting and as beneficial as possible for the little tots. A mid-morning lunch will be given the children, and dinner will be served at 12 o'clock. Part of the afternoon will be spent resting.

Under the general supervision of Miss Rhita Jean Sullivan and Miss Lilla Clark, the following student teachers from West Texas State College will be in charge: Misses Madge Lawrence, Altha Mae Duren, Gwendolyn Couts, Roberta Nichols, and Mary Isobel Hanvey.

"I'm 60 years old," said a wealthy man to his friend, "and I want your advice. Do you think it would be better to tell a certain young lady whom I would like to marry that I am 50 years old?"

"Well," said his friend, "if you want me to be quite frank, I think your chance of getting her would be better if you told her you were 75."

Author: This is the plot of my story. A midnight scene. Two burglars creep stealthily toward the house. They climb a wall and and force open a window and enter the room; the clock strikes one.

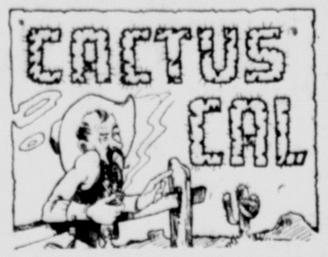

Sweet Thing (breathlessly): Which one?

RUINED

The famous detective arrived on the scene.

"Heavens," he said, "this is more serious than I thought—the window is broken on both sides."

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Senior meditation of a day that will soon be gone—thank goodness! Oh, I don't know! "Why, oh why didn't I get that chemistry yesterday!—I won't answer that question (wow). Fumble, fumble, where did I put my fountain pen, or do Dana Persons and John Gill still have it? Ah, here it is caught in the lining of my coat—hmmmm—I ought to fix that hole!

"Now where is my assignment sheet. Oh yes, it is in the pocket of the other jacket. Hey, Elwyn Morton, what were we supposed to do for chemistry today? Read? Oh well, then I can get my English instead! Today was book report day, I remember—thank goodness for the Reader's Digest! Oh, there is Anita Davis; (my English can wait)—Did you know that— Oh, did that really happen? What do you think about her anyway?

"Stamp sales this morning? Yes, yes, say, Harold Mayfield, have you a dime you'll lend me until next week? Oh—well, maybe someone in the hall—hmmm—James Guthrie how are you this morning will you lend me a dime? Oh,—Mrs. Tabor, have that dime ready, here I come!

"There is Lillian Menke coming in from the bus with her winter coat on. She'll be carrying it by noon as everybody else does only I leave all my two up here and freeze on the way to school the next morning. (Two whole blocks!)

"Nine o'clock! That means this is continued until next week, that is if I live through the day without my lessons. Who am I kiddin'? I've done it before."

Guess Who

Brothers who are seniors true
Are swell class members well known to you.
They were the guys behind the stage
When the class play was all the rage.
Though they had worked hard nightly
They avoided the stage politely.
If their names you haven't already guessed,
That they play in the band will tell you the rest.

Answer to last week's Guess Who was Peggy Jean Harding.

"How did you make out with your Victory Garden last year?"

"Well, I learned a lot of things that ought to help me get a crop this year.

Juniors Promote Banquet Plans

Plans for the junior-senior banquet, which will be given May 7 in the Legion Hall, featuring the theme of "A Night in Aloha," are well under way, according to Miss Claryce Whitten, junior sponsor.

Special guests besides the seniors will include roommothers, school board members and their wives, and high school teachers and their wives and husbands.

The definition of a skeleton: A man with his insides out and his out sides off.

Noon Finals Climax Tournament

School Furnishes Winners Trophy

All Star Players Receive Small Silver Volley Balls

Bringing the girls' intramural volley ball tournament nearer to its inevitable climax, teams have clashed in noon games this week, and the finals will be played tomorrow at noon. There will be no admission charge.

With a trophy furnished by the school and small silver volley ball pins for the six individuals making the all-star team to work toward, each player has shown good sportsmanship and team spirit.

Playing Monday, the sophomores defeated the seventh graders by several points. Games were played between the eighth and ninth grades grades Tuesday, and the tenth and eleventh grades Wednesday. Semi-finals were today.

Captaining class teams are Tommy Lou Ford, senior; Margaret Prichard, junior; Lorene Seales, sophomore; Evelyn Garrison, freshman; Betty Ann Miller, eighth grade; and Billye Gill, seventh grade.

"Each player has shown exceptional sportsmanship, and I think both the players and the spectators thoroughly enjoyed the tournament," said Miss Amaryllis Robinson, who is in charge of the tournament.

Third Graders Present Typical Bird Club Program for Special Guests

President Dorothy McReynolds presided last Friday at the weekly meeting of the third grade Bird Club in Miss Sarah Thompson's class room.

Guests included Miss Anna Hibbets, educational director from West Texas State College; Mrs. Leland Moreman and her third grade from the Demonstration school; and Charles Ford.

Jennings Leads Program

Jimile Jennings, program chairman, was in charge of the program. After Truman Laughery read the story of "Bird Friends," Shirley Leonard recited a poem, "The Crow." Richard Sanders read "The Only Bird That Can Fly Backwards," after which Teddy Howell conducted a quiz game about trees and birds. Both classes revealed interesting facts about the collection of mounted birds which was on exhibit in the room. This collection consisted of a red-headed woodpecker, flicker, song sparrow, meadow lark, sparrow hawk, great horned owl, cedar wax wings, and the bald eagle.

Robert O'Conner, one of the visiting third graders, told a story about song sparrows which was followed by "Song Sparrow Song" sung by Mrs. Moreman's third grade.

Bobby Vandergriff told the visitors how his class had mounted the coot, a bird which was given to the class by Charles Ford.

Classes Serve Refreshments

Miss Thompson's class served the cookies they made on their miniature stove in class Thursday.

Mrs. Moreman's room brought and served punch.

"I think this was one of the best meetings we have had. The children were greatly impressed, not just from the meeting itself, but from having with them a class which is studying the same thing that they are," said Miss Thompson.

The London couple were part of a crowd that got caught in a blackout.

"'Erbert," said the young lady, "you shouldn't kiss me with all this crowd standing around."

"I didn't kiss you," replied Herbert. "And if I catch the fellow who did, I'll teach him a thing or two."

"Don't bother, 'Erbeht," she sighed, "you couldn't teach him nothing."

Toy Piano Confuses Unknowing Visitors

"Why, Mrs. Murrell, I didn't know that your students had bought a piano! When did you get it and where?"

If this is what you say to Mrs. Stella Murrell, second grade teacher, when you first enter her room, this is probably what she will say in reply:

"I don't want to disillusion you, but before you try to play it, I think you should know that our piano isn't real, even though it does look it."

"I. M. Steen, grade school custodian, has made the almost actual-size musical instrument for us and we are almost as proud of it as we would be if it were real."

Corps Calls Last Meeting of Year

This year's final meeting of the Victory Corps was called Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. This meeting brought to a close all activities of the year.

"I assure you that in any emergency of national importance, I will not hesitate to call upon you," said Supt. J. B. Speer.

Prospective Guest: Why, this room reminds me of a prison.

Assistant Manager: Well, sir, it's all a matter of what one is used to.

WORK CAN BE FUN

Play is fun. But work, it is generally understood, is dull routine. Why?

Psychologists say it is all in one's attitude toward the activity. Work can be fun for the person who makes up his mind to tackle it with the same zest, the same spirit of play with which he tackles a game.

Keeping one's mind on the goal adds interest to work, just as it does to play. In play, the goal is to win a game. In work, the goal may be less evident, but is even more important. The final goal of most work, perhaps, is the winning of a better way of life for oneself and one's family.

So if we would find fun in our work while we are in school as well as in the years ahead, we must tackle every job that comes our way with firm determination to accomplish more than ever before, or more than anyone else has done so far as we know. Success may not always follow, but honestly trying will be fun.

A Word In Time

"Our enemies have a secret weapon which haunts me, and that is poison gas—not mustard or phosgene or any of the other pleasant little concoctions—but the poison of our own complacent overconfidence, fed by misinformation and over-eagerness to march in a victory parade. This is poison because it can knock us out for good. Everyone of us is guilty of inhaling it at every opportunity."

C. H. LANG, Vice-President of General Electric, in a speech before the Edison Electrical Institute.

It is going to take your dollars, and many of them to win this war. Put them to work now that the Victory Parade may be a reality later.

Don Blanding Is Painter, Traveler

Adventurer Has Unusual Ability to Share His Journeys With Audience

There's a new wave of enthusiasm on the campus. Don Blanding, famous vagabond poet, adventurer, and author, will be presented by the West Texas State College lyceum committee on Monday evening, April 19. He was here several years ago.

Blanding has been said to be a poet by nature, an actor by instinct, an artist by accident, and a vagabond by choice. He tells gay stories of unusual adventures in all parts of the world. He began his travels at the age of 15, working for banks, lumber camps, ranches, mines, newspapers, and theaters. He wrote as he chose, cartooned a bit, and journeyed by every imaginable conveyance.

While studying art in Chicago, Blanding painted the backdrop for Ben Hecht's first play. Later he sketched various American scenes, then spent seven years in the South Pacific. He talks of tropic days and nights . . . the boom of distant surf on black lava sands . . . swaying palm trees . . . the heavy perfumes of tropical flowers . . . native girls dancing by the light of flaming torches—and hundreds of other scenes which fill his memory.

Blanding speaks many languages and knows the great and little peoples of many lands. Yet he is thoroughly American, a 6 foot, 190-pound Oklahoman. He interprets the world through the eyes of an American poet. He writes a book or two each year, making his own illustrations.

It is difficult to describe Blanding's lectures, for he cannot be "typed." His individuality is his charm. His gift for sharing his adventures with his audiences must be heard to be appreciated. He is an artist without being "arty," a man's poet, an adventurer with an extraordinary gift for description, a son of pioneers who chose the whole world for his frontier.

"West of the sunset stands my house,
There . . . and east of the dawn;
North to the Arctic runs my yard;
South to the Pole, my lawn;
Seven seas are to sail my ships
To the ends of the earth . . . beyond;
Drifter's gold is for me to spend,
For I am a vagabond.

Admission to the lecture will be by activity ticket or payment of 50 cents. The program will open at 8:30 p. m.

Garden Leaves

Mrs. J. A. HILL
President Canyon Garden Club

Growing things is both an art and a science. Very few of us are either artists or scientists. Most of us work by the trial and error method, and hit or miss the desired results.

Plants are like children. No two can be treated just alike. We have to study them individually. Select sunny spots for heat loving plants, and shady places for the delicate ones; give plenty of water to the thirsty ones; and less to the more hardy ones. Soil is a whole subject by itself and one that only a scientist knows much about.

There are stacks of vegetable and flower bulletins to be had for the asking, but since they are more or less contradictory, we may wade around among them for hours and be farther asea when we have finished than we were when we began. The best thing to do is to use common sense based upon experience and to consult those who have had more experience than we.

Mr. Spencer Whippo of W. T. College faculty recommends a little pocket sized book, Vest Pocket of Vegetable Gardening, by C. H. Missley, for general information on gardening. He kindly offers his service to advise with those who are interested in the subject.

We can fairly safely begin planting our Victory Gardens in earnest, now. They are going to be blessings in many ways besides furnishing food. They present clean wholesome subjects for conversation; furnish a method for our "daily dozen" in the fresh air and sunshine; will soon give us a medium of neighborly exchange and the making of them gives us a feeling of satisfaction for doing something worth while. Like the mythological character, we grow stronger every time we touch the earth.

Have horticulturists found anything to forestall the ravages of the grasshoppers? I shudder to think of their arrival.

Let's hope that
"The April showers
To make May flowers" are in the offing, but if not, remember that seeds must have to have both water and warmth to make them germinate. Do not let your seed beds dry out and do not give them too much water to wash them away.

Isn't it fun to help Mother Nature?

In the United States there are 1,030 "career" women who have taken up law. There are also several million other women who lay it down.

The panhandler is in his glory now. Everybody gives him a nickel for a cup of coffee. The only hitch is they all follow him to see where he's going to get it!

YOUNG AMERICA DEPT.

"Is 'trousers' singular or plural, Johnnie?"

"Singular at the top and plural at the bottom."

Boogy: Thanks for the loan, but what's this pamphlet you gave me?

Woogy: Oh, that's just a little book that explains how to develop one's memory.

V-NEWS

From Randall County Mome Economists

Are you one of those many who find making introductions difficult?

Association with others is the foundation of everyday living, yet the process of introducing and meeting new people is too often a source of embarrassed confusion. This is unfortunate, because in avoiding and fearing introductions one may be sacrificing possible friendships. And it is unnecessary, because introductions are easy for all concerned if they know the few standard forms prescribed by custom, and learn to use them casually and pleasantly.

Respect for sex, age, and importance is the first point to consider when introducing two people. It is shown by presenting others to the person who deserves this special courtesy. Therefore, since it is necessary to determine which is to be honored, every one should memorize the following simple rules:

1. A man is always presented to a woman. (The only exceptions are in cases of the President of the United States, royalty or such).
2. A younger person to a much older person of the same sex.
3. An important person to an important one of the same sex.
4. An unmarried woman to a married woman, unless the unmarried one is considerably older or an important person.
5. Extremely young children to adults of either sex.

There are many forms whereby an introduction may be made. Select a form you prefer and learn to use it properly.

The most formal introduction is, "Miss Young, may I present Mr. Hart?" Should this form seem too stiff, you may substitute the word "introduce" for "present." Another less formal form is, "Mr. Hart do you know Miss Young?" Never say "Shake hands with," "Let me make you acquainted with," "I want to make you acquainted with."

The correct response to an introduction is, "How do you do?" Remember that the expression is merely a form and not an inquiry about your health.

Jack: Oh, but you are.

Is this a case of SWELLED HEAD?

NON SEMPER EASUNT QUAE VIDENTUR, is the answer. Or in plain English: Things are not always what they seem. And this seems to be really a case of a small hat rather than a swelled head.

Now, when you want to pick an oil for your motor, one that will serve you well and save your motor and your money, here are facts, in plain English, to help you choose with confidence.

Phillips produces a variety of oils because cars, motorists, and pocketbooks vary. But if you are the kind of careful car owner who wants our best oil, you need have no question. Phillips frankly tells you that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality . . . the highest grade and greatest value . . . among all the oils we offer to average motorists.

It is always good sense to use good oil. But now it is plainly more important than ever. So be safe and saving. Ask for Phillips 66 Motor Oil when replacing winter-worn lubricant, or when making the recommended every-two-months oil change.

Summer Term Plans Completed

Instruction Calendar Of W. T. Never Ends During War Emergency

Wartime education is a never-ending process, and the summer session of West Texas State College will offer courses for beginning freshmen in addition to regular work.

Other classes will include accelerated courses which permit an entire year's work in business subjects to be done in the 15-week summer session. The session will permit students to get a full semester's credits. Terms will be of nine weeks and six weeks.

The summer session will open May 27 and close September 4. The nine-week term, however, will close July 27 and the second, or six-week term, will start on the following day.

Many courses will be designed for men and women who wish "refresher" work to permit them to teach in the public schools. Many classes may be entered for fractional credits of one or two semester hours. The teacher shortage continues to grow more critical in the Panhandle.

The summer session also will offer much work for those wishing to prepare for jobs in defense plants and for young men who need work in mathematics, industrial arts, and the sciences before enlisting in military services.

The presence of military personnel on the campus will not prevent the normal functioning of the summer session.

Carrie Bauer spent the week end in Canyon with friends.

Clean Lighting Fixtures

Don't neglect electric light bulbs and reflectors or diffusing fixtures. Conservation is important in these war times, and dust cuts down light making it necessary to use more wattage and cutting down also on the value you get from the current you use. Each week or fortnight, each bulb should be mopped with a damp soapy cloth, then rinsed and wiped thoroughly dry. Make sure lights are switched off before you start mopping.
